Hello,

I want to convey to you how much I enjoyed our telephone conversation yesterday. It is always enjoyable to speak with persons who have the same enthusiasm for hunting down information on recent and long ago ancestors. I very much appreciate your willingness to share information that you have recorded. I look forward to having more conversations with you.

Here are my connecting points should they be helpful.

Audrey Stanton Wiebenga (Wee' ben ga - "g" as in go) This is a northern Dutch name.

Thanks again for the generous amount of time you gave in our telephone conversation.

Best wishes,
Audrey

Description:

This database is an index to individuals enumerated in the 1870 United States Federal Census, the Ninth Census of the United States. Census takers recorded many details including each person's name, age at last birthday, sex, color; birthplace, occupation, and more. No relationships were shown between members of a household. Additionally, the names of those listed on the population schedule are linked to actual images of the 1870 Federal Census.

A black and white photograph of a large, rectangular gravestone for I.E. Fickle. The stone is made of rough-hewn material and has a decorative, arched top. The inscription is carved into a central panel. The stone is set on a base of two more rectangular blocks. In the foreground, a small, dark, five-pointed star-shaped object is placed on the ground, leaning against the base of the stone. The background shows a grassy field with trees and another gravestone in the distance.

The Van Wert Times has high hopes for the future of the Cincinnati, Van Wert & Michigan Railroad. It says:
"The company have every reason to be
gratified with the results of their road
so far. It has already proved its ability to earn sufficient to pay the interest
on its first mortgage from the present
local business and with the lengthening out of the line the present local traffic must be largely augmented, and
when supplemented by the large
through business that is sure to follow
the completion of the line in its entirety, it must become one of the most important trunk roads the country
possesses, and all its securities valuable investments. Large bodies move slowly; most important projects take much time in their fruition. It is now
over a quarter of a century since that
great statistician and acute observer
and writer, E. D. Mansfield, first drew attention to the importance of the Cincinnati & Mackinaw as the great north and south line of the future, his interest in it never ceasing until he was gathered to his fathers a few years ago. Many other able pens have been enlisted in its service in the past, and at length
the break of day that promises full
fruition to this great project has come.
Already twenty-eight miles are completed and in operation, and the crossing of the New York, Chicago & Saint Louis Railroad just effected, insures the early completion of the road to the capital of Paulding county. Long stretches of grade beyond the present
ends of track both north and south are ready for the superstructure, and the opening of business so auspicious that capitalists are already turning their eyes toward it as an inviting field for investment. Very recently the company have had the refusal of propositions to iron the road from Cincinnati
to Michigan on terms that probably no
other new company could secure."

It is surprising to see how much faster
a lie will travel than the truth, and how much more willing people are to believe
a falsehood than they are the truth.
This is brought to mind by reading an article in the Pioneer Alliance in regard to the vote on the Stubbs law amendment and the comments concerning our Representative's action on that occasion.
The daily papers erroneously reported
Mr. Bowersox present and not voting on the bill to amend the Stubbs law. The next day the same papers came out with a correction, saying that Mr. B. was not present as reported but was absent with his Committee on Universities. It appears that everybody saw the first, but scarcely anyone saw the second. We take this occasion to give the bottom
facts so that all who want to know the truth can have one more opportunity.
The amendment to the Stubbs law,
which is to prevent the sale of liquor on
the Sabbath, was pending in the House.
The enemies of the amendment saw an opportunity to spring it upon the House
when a number of its friends, among whom was Mr. Bowersox, were absent.
Mr. Smith, the author of the bill, seeing the object of the move, and knowing
that by the vote of those then present
that it would be lost, voted against the bill himself, so that, having voted negatively, he would have the right to move its reconsideration, which he did a few days later when on each of its

character have attracted the attention of some of the leading musicians of the country, who are deeply interested in her future. It is confidently predicted
that she will equal, or indeed surpass, Cary, whom she greatly resembles. It is stated that, through the interest awakened in her probable musical future
among influential people, arrangements
have been made which will insure Miss McLain several years of study under the
the best masters abroad and a splendid
career on her return to this country.

MARRIED.

SCOTT—ENSIGN.—At the residence of the brides parents, Mr. and Mrs. O. E. Ensign, Jan. 17th, 1889, by Rev. W. V. Thomas, Mr. Matus R. Scott and Miss Carrie E. Ensign.

About sixty guests were present. The bridal pair received some very nice presents, which were highly appreciated by them.

DIED.

CHILCOTE.—On Friday, January 18th, 1889, in Edgerton, O., Benjamin William, only child of Grant and Melissa Chilcote, aged 1 year, 4 months and 12 days.

The funeral was held on Sunday, Jan. 20th, in the M. E. church. Rev. J. R. Colgan officiating. The attendance was very large.

FICKLE.—On Jan. 16th, 1889, at her home in Farmer township, Defiance county, O., Sabina, wife of Elias Fickle, aged 42 years, 2 months and 5 days.

She made all the arrangements for her funeral, selecting the seventh chapter of Job for scripture lesson, and for the text, Psalms 23rd chapter, 4th verse, and hymns 48, 187 and 184 in Gospel Hymns.

On the following day her remains were taken to the church at Farmer, followed by a large concourse of friends. After services by the writer, the body was taken to Farmer cemetery and laid in the tomb to await the resurrection morning.

Sister Fickle was a good member in the Reformed church. She leaves a husband and one daughter to mourn their loss. The church has lost a good member, the husband a kind wife.

'Tis finished: the conflict is past.
The heaven-born spirit is fled.
Her wish is accomplished at last.
And now she's entombed with the dead.

The months of affliction are o'er.
The days and the nights of distress
We see her in anguish no more,
She's gained her happy release.

REV. P. J. SPANGLER.

We have a few hanging lamps left, which we will close out at cost.

Lindsey, I will stand him at Bryan season of 1889. This horse is a sure for getter and produces colts as good as any stallion in the country. His colts are all large and showy, and command and bring a high price in the markets. The horse is too well known to give a description of, as he has made the seasons of '87 and '88 in this vicinity. He can be seen at Taylor Bro's stables.

NOTES.

The physician, in order to cover the required points, should read carefully the following notes, and unless they are complied with the affidavit will be worthless and ineffective.

1st. Whether or not he knew the soldier prior to enlistment; the length of time he has known him; how intimately and what opportunities he has had of observing his physical condition; whether as a neighbor, and how near he has lived to him. If he knew that the soldier was a sound man at enlistment, he should so state, adding, if true, that had he known and he would have known it.

2d. If he treated claimant while in the service, either as his regimental surgeon or while claimant was home on furlough that fact should be stated. The claimant's physical condition at such times should be clearly shown, as well as the NATURE OF HIS DISABILITY and dates of treatment.

3d. If he has treated soldier since discharge, he should so state, giving the date of his first treatment; what his physical condition was at the time, with complete diagnosis of the disability; the period during

hereby indorse the principles set forth
in the Ohio republican state platform of 1891, and the candidates nominated by the state convention upon that platform.
Resolved, That in Hon. Wm. McKinley, Jr., our candidate for governor, we recognize that the republicans of Ohio
have selected a fearless, pure and able statesman for their standard bearer, and
a man whose record in private life and in public service stamps him as entirely
worthy of the suffrage of every lover of our country living within the borders of our state. And we pledge to him and to each and every candidate on the republican ticket—including those this day nominated—our unqualified support at the polls.

Resolved, That the republican party
which took possession of the nation when imperilled with financial ruin, and when depression was found in every branch of its industrial and business interests, and
has elevated the nation to the highest rank among the nations of the earth, after
putting down the most gigantic rebellion
of ancient or modern times; and, which,
by its wise policy of government, is still
foremost in its efforts to protect every individual citizen in every lawful right
under the constitution, is worthy of the support of every American citizen.

Resolved, That we fully indorse the protective tariff law, introduced and championed to successful adoption by Hon. Wm. McKinley, Jr., our candidate for governor of Ohio, and we hold that our party, which has successfully carried
the nation through the trials that have
beet it since '61, and has brought prosperity to the nation beyond that of any other nation on earth, and to every individual citizen who has made an earnest
effort for success, is a safe party for any
citizen, whether republican, democrat,
alliance or temperance man, to support
at the coming election.

Resolved, That the principles set forth
in the Ohio democratic state platform for 1891, relating to the free coinage of silver,
to the tariff question, to an income tax,
and to other public questions, and its indorsement of the present inefficient, reckless, and extravagant democratic administration of state affairs, we see nothing
but great danger to the prosperity of our people and an attempt by appeals to unworthy motives, and dangerous and demoralizing influences, to attain and perpetuate the power of the party behind it in the state. We therefore condemn and denounce that platform and the party
putting it forth, and call on all good citizens to join with us in defeating and
overthrowing that party at the polls.

M. M. BOOTHMAN,
Chairman Com. on Resolutions,
ROBERT OGLE, Sec'y.

All the reports were adopted, and the
resolutions brought out an enthusiasm
that showed that they suited the convention exactly. Chairman Colet then addressed the convention in one of the neat-
est and most timely speeches ever delivered on a similar occasion in this county. He was greeted with applause every now and then at some flash of wit, and
each outburst seemed to inspire him with
some new and frequently sharp reference to county affairs. When the call for nominations was made, the name of John Bailey, of Bridgewater, for representative, was announced by Hon. M. M.
Boothman, and that of Joseph W. Williams, of Superior, by Dr. J. P. Cameron.
of Eaton. Both names were greeted with hearty applause. No others were announced.

DIED.

KAYLOR.—On Saturday night, Aug. 29th,
at his home in Williams Center, Daniel Kaylor, aged 69 years.
Mr. Kaylor moved to this county from Cincinnati in '63, at which time he settled on a farm one-half mile west of Center, where he resided until about eight years ago. The funeral was held Tuesday at ten o'clock. The exercises were conducted by the pastor of the M. E.
church at Edgerton.

STOCKMAN.—Cora Haltz, wife of Milton
Stockman, died August 29th, 1891, aged 17 years, 6 months and 11 days.
She was born February 18th, 1874, in Pulaski township, Williams county, O.,
and was united in marriage with Milton Stockman, Feb. 20th, 1890. She leaves
a husband and babe to mourn her loss,
also a father and mother, brothers and
sister, and a host of relatives and friends.
She was a loving creature, and was spoken
of in terms of highest praise. The funeral services took place at the M. E.
church at Melburn, August 31st, 1891,
conducted by Rev. O. M. Eberly.

POYNTER.—In Pioneer, on Sunday morning, Aug. 30th, 1891, Tammy, daughter of Levin and Delia A. Poynter, aged 23 years, 7 months, and 14 days.
The funeral was conducted at the residence, Aug. 31, by Rev. J. R. Colgan, of the M. E. church.

FICKLE.—At his home near Farmer Center, on Friday, Aug. 29th, Elias Fickle,
age 44 years and 5 months.
Mr. Fickle was a member of Co. H, 9th
Ohio Cavalry, Capt. Caldwell's company.
The funeral, which occurred Sunday, was conducted by the G. A. R. Post at Farmer, of which he was a member, and was one of the largest ever held in the county.

BUSINESS BREVITIES.

There is no industry in America which has made so rapid advancement towards perfection as have the underwear and hosiery industries of our country. You need not ask to see the imported that you may get the best. To the contrary we find the trade calling for home manufacture. No better evidence is required.
Then, when we see the consumers demanding our American products there never was a time in the history of Williams county that you could buy as good a Jersey Ribbed Vest as you can at the present time at Neikirk's for 35c. He has the largest stock of Underwear and

Dear Mary Etta,

It is nice to know there are other family members researching our past. Did you go to the Fickle-Wasnick reunions? My mother used to go to those as a child. Her name was then Grace Burns, she has a sister named Daphene.

Thank you for enclosing the pictures and the article, I called Mom and she can't wait to see them. By the way I asked Mom about Elsie being Cecil's mother and she said she never heard anything about that. But Elsie did have a daughter before she married Arthur, who was named Florence, she was raised by Eliza Ethel. She died of spinal meningitis in her early twenties.

I have enclosed the information I have collected so far on the Burns family. I need to contact some family members to get birth dates and catch up on some. I'll send you updated information when I get it. Please keep in touch.

Sincerely, a distant cousin,

Teresa Stezowski

Dear Ruth,

Last month I began taking
slides, of which I also had negatives
of old family pictures of which I
have many. Sometimes I feel sure
of identification but like to have confirmations.

Well I could have at least began
this with hoping you are all well &
I do trust your father. It's been several years since I was in Houston and
saw them it was full of super highways & can't imagine what it must be like to
now. While there (for Legion Conos) we enjoyed a trip to Halveston & visited
the space center. What a good time we
had. Didn't know you were there - would love to talk with you.

Well, included is one of the slides. My name & name looked so much alike when they were young but I feel this is basic & worth. Am I right? Do you have old family pictures. I have a photo picture of Minnie Dossie.
Now Aunt Cassie also a snap shot of them down at Aunt Cassie taken in

the summer time maybe in the early 40's. You don't need to return this slide as I have another one. It's easier to take
when I'm set up and sometimes
one turns out better than the other.
Return was Nov. 1, 1980 and I am so busy I can't believe it. The
weeks just fly by. We're having
beautiful weather and the azaleas
day wood are just so beautiful.
~~I have a lot of~~ I would like
to send a couple family sheets
partially filled out if it would be ok. I thought I could spend
at least one day a week at the
library, either S.D.S., Congress, Archibald
or S.P.P. but so far I just haven't been able to. Just getting the picture
some what organized is a big task.
If you can think of any specific
pictures you would like to have
copies of be sure to ask if I have

Dear Ruth,

Last month I began taking
sliders, of which I also had negative
of old family pictures of which I
have many. Sometimes I feel sure
of identification but like to have confirmation.

Well, I cannot have at least began
this with hoping you are all well &
I do trust you all. It's been several
years since I was in Houston and
even then it was full of super highways
I can't imagine what it must be like
now. While there (Houston area) we enjoyed a trip to Galveston & visited
the space center. What a good time we
had. Didn't know you were there - would
love to talk with you.

Well, enclosed is one of the slides. Minnie & Lucie looked so much alike when they were young but I feel this is true &
Oh worth. Am I right? Do you
have old family pictures. I have a faded picture of Minnie & Lucie.
Minnie & Aunt Cassie also a snap shot of them down at Aunt Cassie's taken in

The summer time right on the early 40's. You should need to rethink that slide as I have
another one. It's easier to take
when I'm up around sometimes
we turn out better than the other.

Retirement was Apr. 1, 1980 and
am so busy I can't believe it. The
weeks just fly by. We're having
beautiful weather and the yellow
dogwood are just as beautiful.

~~I am so busy~~ I would like
to send a couple family shots
partially killed but if it would be ok I thought I could open
at least one day a week at the
library. either F.D.S., Congress, Arch
or D.A.P. but so far I just haven't been able to. I just getting the picture
some what organized is a big task.
If you can think of any specific
pictures you would like to have
copies of the sure to ask if I have them & I will make copies for
you. Thanks for your help in identifying.
Sincerely, Lane

Binaldo Kimmel, an old soldier of the 21st O. V. V. I., living in Farmer township, was in Andersonville prison 17 months, and was on the ill-fated Sultana when she was blown up. He is one of the greatest sufferers from pain we have ever met. These pains have been coming on him gradually for many years, until at the present time it seems almost impossible for him to get his breath when he is thus attacked. Oh! that the men who are responsible for the treatment those men received while in prison, could be made to share this comrade's suffering. It is true, he gets a pension of $24 a month, but this is not enough to even pay his doctor bill, and we understand that a special effort will be made at the next term of congress, by the G. A. R. boys, through Hon. M. M. Boothman to have his pension increased to $72 dollars a month.

Harold Norway 1987

BRYAN — Harold Leighton Norway, 87, Bryan, died at 10:50 a.m. Saturday in the Bryan Nursing Care Center, where he had been a patient since August 1985.

He was born Dec. 4, 1899, in Farmer, the son of Clyde and Gertrude Norway. He married Lora Kimmell, who died in 1986. He was a 1917 graduate of Farmer High School. A World War I veteran, he was an engineer, having graduated from Defiance College and Case Western Reserve University, Cleveland.

He had resided in Evanston, Ill., for many years, and had also resided in Hot Springs, Ark. and Dayton, moving to the Bryan area in 1985. He was a member of the Congregational Church, Evanston, Ill.

Surviving is one cousin, Helen (Hutchins) Carlstead, address unknown.

Preceding him in death was one sister.

Services will be at 2 p.m. Tuesday in Brown Funeral Home, Hicksville, with Rev. Roger Ashley officiating. Burial will be in Farmer Cemetery. Visitation at the funeral home will be after 9 a.m. Tuesday.

Memorials may be made to a charity of the donor's choice.

OBITUARIES

Lois L. Fritz
(1930 — 2017)

Lois L. Fritz, age 87, of Hamilton, Indiana, died at home on Saturday, May 20. Lois was born on Jan. 11, 1930, on the farm at Hicksville, Ohio, the daughter of Preston and Agnes Reas Beard. She married Leighton M. Fritz in Farmer, Ohio, on Aug. 27, 1950. He preceded her in death just this past November. They had celebrated their 50th and 55th anniversaries with family cruises to the Bahamas and Belize. A family celebration for their 65th anniversary was held at Laurel's of Butler, Indiana.

Lois is survived by daughter, Julie Ann Fritz-Bergman (Jerry Bergman), Ney, Ohio; and son, Mark Alan (Mary) Fritz, New Haven, Indiana. Surviving also are five grandsons, Chad (Jennifer) Balhoff, Waterville, Ohio, Brett (Mindy) Balhoff, Porter, Indiana, Colin (Katie) Fritz, Russellville, Kentucky, Derek Fritz, Fort Wayne, Indiana, and Evan Fritz, New Haven, Indiana. Surviving great-grandchildren are Anna and Matthew Balhoff, Porter, McKenna and Karlie Messenger, Waterville, Michael Balhoff, Waterville, Vera and Charlotte Fritz, Russellville, Kentucky and Cara Hoyt, Medina, Ohio. Lois was preceded in death by her parents; her sister, Helen (Cletus) Mavis; and an infant great-grandson, Christian Fritz.

Lois was a 1948 graduate of Farmer HS, Farmer, and received a bachelor's degree in education from Bowling Green State University and a master's in education from Indiana University. She taught elementary grades in Mark Center and Farmer Elementary Schools in Ohio, and at Waterloo Elementary in Indiana. She was a past member of Delta Kappa Gamma teacher's sorority, Indiana State Retired Teachers' Association, Steuben Women's Club, Red Hat Society, Hamilton United Methodist Church, HUMWomen and the church choir.

Family members also surviving are her brother-in-law, Cletus Mavis of Bryan, Ohio, and sisters-in-law, three Shirley Fritzes of Bryan, Wauseon and formerly of Hicksville. Many, many extended family members on both sides were cherished and close to Lois during the years.

Friends from the areas of Ney, Ohio, and Hamilton, Indiana, survive and were beloved, as well as the community of Laurel Estates, North Fort Myers, Florida. She leaned on the support of faith, family and friends through the tough times, and celebrated the joys with these three communities as well.

Lois loved God, family and friends. Among many accomplishments are known her "chicken noodles," lake parties, brownies and smiles for the generations that follow her. Love for Purdue University basketball and football was boundless!

Memorial celebrations will be held at the Hamilton UMC, in Hamilton, Indiana, on Thursday, May 25, with greeting of family and friends from 9-11 a.m., and a worship celebration of life at 11:15 a.m. Lois chose to support ongoing medical research with her gift of the body to Indiana University School of Medicine.

Expressions of sympathy may be directed to Hamilton UMC, or to the donor's choice. Please understand the request for no florist memorials.

 All our lives through;
God hath not promised
 Sun without rain;
Joy without sorrow
 Peace without pain.

But God hath promised
 Strength for the days,
Rest for the labor,
 Light for the way.
Grace for the trials
 Help from above,
Unfailing sympathy
 Undying love

The Twenty-Third Psalm

The Lord is my shepherd; I shall not want.
He maketh me to lie down in green
pastures:

He leadeth me beside the still waters.

He restoreth my soul: He leadeth me in the paths of righteousness for His name's sake.

Yea, though I walk through the valley of
the shadow of death, I will fear no evil:
for thou art with me; thy rod and thy
staff they comfort me.

Thou preparest a table before me in the presence of mine enemies: thou anointest
my head with oil; my cup runneth over.

Surely goodness and mercy shall follow me
all the days of my life: and I will dwell
in the house of the Lord for ever.

It's almost time for Eva Gaye (my daughter) to come to do chores. She may feed my dog and my one cat at the barn as there is a cold wind and it's a little slippery underfoot.

Hope you have been through all the surgery you will need - guess you were pretty fortunate after all.

I'm going to write brother Victor (he's 91 - lives in Florida with daughter Marcell) about Lt. Benjamin Fickle - I'm sure he'll be interested.

Thank you for your letter

Dear Roena -

I'm sure glad you remembered me this Christmas when I know you have so many letters and plans to make. I was interested in the Maryland 400 history - copied that part of your letter and sent to Eula (Henry - Aunt Dossie's daughter) though I know neither of us are much on the "ancestor-line".

I was sure sorry to hear about Al and his Rheumatoid arthritis trouble. That is what my sister Lora had and I know what pain she had. It does seem as if your family

Orpha L. Hilbert

HICKSVILLE — Mrs. Orpha L. Hilbert, 94, who resided on Ohio 2, died at 8:35 a.m. Saturday, Feb. 1, 1997 in her home.

Born Oct. 9, 1902 in Farmer Township, Defiance County, she was the daughter of Minerva (Wasnich) and Granger Kimmell.

A 1920 graduate of Farmer High School, she continued her education at The Defiance College and Ohio University, Athens. Mrs. Hilbert was a school teacher at Ayersville, Mark Center, and other Township District Schools in Ohio.

In 1930 she was united in marriage with Russel R. Hilbert at Farmer Township. He preceded her in death on April 14, 1977.

She was a member of the Farmer Union United Methodist Church, the Farmer Get-Together Club, Ladies Aid, past member of the Women's Christian - Temperance Union at Farmer, and a Sunday School teacher of the young adults class for many years.

Surviving are two daughters, Mrs. Ward (Shirley) Fritz and Mrs. George (Eva Gaye) Tomlinson, both of Bryan; four granddaughters; a grandson; and 10 great-grandchildren.

Other than her husband she was preceded in death by a brother and two sisters.

Friends may call at the Brown Funeral Home, Hicksville, after 2 p.m. today and after 9 a.m. Tuesday.

Funeral services will be in the funeral home at 11 a.m. Tuesday. The Rev. Greg Wack, pastor of the Farmer Union United Methodist Church, will officiate. Burial will be in the Lost Creek Cemetery.

Preferred memorials are to the donor's choice.

Cutting off her cellphone bring wayward daughter

DEAR ABBY: I need advice on how to deal with my 18-year-old daughter. A few months ago she was ready to go to college. Then she met this guy via Snapchat. He's unemployed, lives with a friend who is under house arrest, has a criminal record and has nothing to offer her.

We took our car away from our daughter to keep her from driving it there. Two weeks ago, she packed her stuff and left with him. She has no job, has spent all of her graduation money and is running up our cellphone bill while living with him. My wife is a wreck, and we don't know what to do. — DAD IN NORTH CAROLINA

DEAR DAD: I empathize with your concern for your daughter, but she is immature and in love. Because she's 18 you can't drag her back home. Tell her that now she has "declared her independence and moved out," you will no longer pay her cellphone bill. I'm guessing she'll be back in no time.

DEAR ABBY: I am a 50-year-old male who has been dating a younger girl (28) for a year now. Everything has been great with her except for one thing. I am a virgin.

We recently discussed having relations and both agree that we want to. There's just one problem. I have really talked myself up. I lied and told her I am much larger than I actually am. Abby, I am terrified she'll dump me after she sees me. Please give me some advice. — NEEDS HELP FAST

Fritz sisters selected for Kiwanis Club honor

Bryan Kiwanis Club doubled up on its Student of the Month award for April, presenting Certificate of Merit to both Teresa and Toinette Fritz, twin daughters of Mr. and Mrs. Ward Fritz, 802 West High St.

The Bryan High School seniors were honored by the club in its Wednesday luncheon meeting. Recognized in the program are BHS students exemplifying the high Kiwanis ideals.

During their high school years, Teresa and Toinette have been members of the National Honor Society chapter, members three years of the Scholastic Achievement Test team; and selected alternates to Buckeye Girls' State.

Teresa has collected a superior rating in the local school science fair, two superiors in district and one superior in state science fairs. She is squad leader for the marching band, and plays first chair oboe in the symphonic band and orchestra.

Also, she serves as chairman of the voters' registration committee for BHS, and was selected an alternate to Buckeye Girls' State. Her memberships are with the Spanish and Latin clubs, and GAA.

Toinette, who was named "Outstanding Junior at BHS" by Bowling Green State University, is a member of Mask & Sandal Dramatic club, serving as treasurer, earning Thespian honor, and carrying major role in three productions.

She received two superior ratings in local science fairs, is a member of chorus and a cappella, band and orchestra playing second chair trumpet, GAA participating in interscholastic volleyball Varsity B, and French Club.

The BHS senior is winner of the American Legion and Auxiliary of Ohio Americanism Test, and awarded honorable mention in the Miss Teenage America contest.

Both Teresa and Toinette are members of Wesley United Methodist Church, and the latter serves as president of the youth group.

They have received academic scholarships to further their education following high school graduation. Teresa will attend Heidelberg College, Tiffin, to major in elementary education. Toinette is enrolled at Wittenberg University, Springfield, to prepare for a career as a teacher of American history in

Shirley E. Fritz
(1932 – 2021)

Shirley Elaine Fritz, age 88, of Bryan, Ohio, died of natural causes on the morning of Monday, Feb. 15, 2021. Born Nov. 22, 1932, and raised on a farm near Hicksville, Ohio, Shirley was the daughter of Russell and Orpha (Kimmel) Hilbert. She met her husband of 60 years, Ward Fritz, while attending the Farmer School. After graduating from Defiance College, Shirley became a teacher, primarily of high school English at Fairview High School. She also directed plays, acted as class advisor and supervised year-book publications. Over her 30-year career she taught thousands, including children and grandchildren of her earliest pupils. Her life, her warmth and caring positively affected generations.

An avid reader, Shirley's home was filled with books and she enjoyed years of book club membership. She was a founding member of the Mothers of Twins Club and a lifelong member of the Methodist Church. She also loved the outdoors and camped extensively in state and national parks throughout the United States and Canada. She was happiest hiking mountain trails and photographing their national wonders. She shared these passions in slideshows she created for campground and community programs. Her children and grandchildren fondly remember nights around the campfire, particularly in her beloved Colorado Rocky Mountains.

Shirley is survived by three daughters, Loreli (Steven) Fritz Cohn of Highland Park, Illinois, Toinette (Jack) Wills of Gahanna, Ohio, and Teresa (John) Marsh of Pickerington, Ohio; eight grandchildren, Ben Cohn, Julia (Cohn) Rugletic, Joseph Wills, Nathan Wills, Hilary Barnhart, Elaine Casa, Robert Marsh and Kate (Marsh) Heiner; and nine great-grandchildren, Jackson Patrick Cohn, McKenna Burchett, Ella and Gabriel Casa, Brynn and Anderson Barnhart, Lily and Harper Marsh and Reid Heiner.

Shirley was preceded in death by her husband, Ward, in 2014, and sister, Eva Gaye Tomlinson, of Bryan, in 2019.

Because of the pandemic, a memorial service will be held at a future date. In lieu of flowers and in accordance with Shirley's love, the family requests that memorials go to the National Park Foundation through its online "Tribute Gifts" link. Please check the "Mail a Card" box with the "Tribute Acknowledgee" directed to Toni Wills, 469 Beaverbrook Drive, Gahanna, OH 43230.

Eva Gaye Tomlinson
(1934 — 2019)

Eva Gaye Tomlinson, age 84, of Bryan, Ohio, passed away at 12:16 a.m. on Monday, Jan. 14, 2019, in her home, surrounded by her family, after an extended illness. Mrs. Tomlinson was a 1952 graduate of Farmer High School and received her degree in elementary education from Bowling Green State University, where she was a member of an academic sorority. She taught elementary education in the Edon Northwest school system and then at Washington School in the Bryan school system. She also was a tutor for many years. Eva Gaye enjoyed the outdoors, taking long walks in the woods, bird watching, sewing, gardening, crafting, reading, baking homemade pizza and pies and making homemade ice cream and was an avid canner. She was also an avid bicyclist who after graduation from college exhibited her adventuresome side by cycling across and exploring Europe. As a devoted farm wife, she did everything from milking cows to driving tractor and combine. She was also a devoted and loving mother and grandmother who attended to her grandkids, making all birthdays special and organizing summer plays for them and the neighborhood children for many years. She also was able to carry on the tradition of the family sugar camp and the making of maple syrup. Most of all, Eva Gaye was a faithful follower of Christ and lived her faith to the fullest each and every day.

Eva Gaye Tomlinson was born on Aug. 3, 1934, near Hicksville, Ohio, the daughter of Russell and Orpha (Kimmel) Hilbert. While attending Farmer High School she met and dated her future husband, George O. Tomlinson, whom she married on Feb. 9, 1957, in Farmer, Ohio.

Survivors include her husband, George; one daughter, Darcy Adams of Bryan; one son, Todd (Christine) Tomlinson of Bryan; five grandchildren, Ashley (Adams) Tacia, Ryan Adams, Kaiti (Tomlinson) Bates, Malin Adams and Michaela Adams; three great-grandchildren, Haley and Jack Tacia and Anna Bates; and one sister, Shirley Fritz of Bryan.

Visitation will be held from 4-8 p.m. on Thursday, Jan. 17, 2019, in the Krill Funeral Home, 860 W. Mulberry St., Bryan. Services will be held at 11 a.m. on Friday, Jan. 18, 2019, in the Krill Funeral Home, Bryan, with Pastor Mike Elkins officiating. Visitation will also be held for one hour prior to the service beginning at 10 a.m. in the funeral home. Interment will be in Williams Center Cemetery.

Memorials are requested to American Cancer Society.

Ward G. Fritz, 81, passed away on April 9, 2014, at Community Health Professionals Inpatient Hospice in Defiance, Ohio.

He was born in Farmer, Ohio, on May 18, 1932, to Russell and Daisy (Skees) Fritz.

He graduated from Farmer High School. He attended Defiance College where he received his B.S. in social studies education and later received his master's degree from Bowling Green State University.

He married Shirley Hilbert on July 3, 1953, at Farmer Methodist Church. Both he and Shirley became educators in the Farmer community. Ward taught at Hicksville, Kunkle, Ney and Fairview during his 30-year career. He coached basketball, baseball, track, cross country, golf and wrestling and also served as athletic director at Fairview High School.

He held several leadership roles, representing the local teachers' association and serving as mayor of Ney, Ohio.

Ward loved to travel, camping in all states, but Hawaii, and enjoying many fun days hiking the trails.

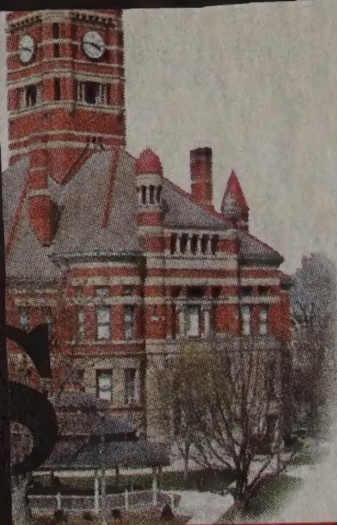

He is survived by his wife of 60 years as well as his three daughters, Loreli Fritz Cohn (Steven Cohn) of Highland Park, Ill., Toinette (Jack) Wills of Gahanna, Ohio, and Teresa (John) Marsh of Pickerington, Ohio. He has six grandchildren, Hilary, Ben, Elaine, Joseph, Nathan and Julia, and five great-grandchildren as well as one brother, Leighton (Lois) Fritz of Hamilton, Ind.

He was preceded in death by his parents as well as by three brothers, John Fritz, Duane Fritz and Keith Fritz.

Funeral visitation will be held on Friday, April 11, from 4-8 p.m. at the Smith & Brown Funeral Home, Hicksville. The funeral will take place the following day, Saturday, April 12, at 11 a.m. at the Funeral Home with burial following at Lost Creek Cemetery.

DEAR ABBY: I was wondering if you could print something about how to properly dispose of American flags. I'm a garbage man in northern Illinois, and I am sick of finding American flags in the trash.

Most of my co-workers and I pull them out and properly dispose of them. Do people REALLY not realize what our flag means, and how many men and women have given their lives for what it stands for? —

PATRIOT NAMED DANIEL

DEAR DANIEL: Your letter is timely. I'm sure the people you have described are not being intentionally disrespectful. I suspect the flags are thrown out because of ignorance.

Readers: When an American flag becomes soiled, faded and tattered, there are better ways to dispose of it than tossing it in the garbage. According to the U.S. Flag Code, "When a flag has served its useful purpose, it should be destroyed, PREFERABLY BY BURNING."

The pamphlet "Flag Etiquette" published by the American Legion states: "For individual citizens this should be done discreetly, so that the act is not perceived as a protest or desecration."

Many American Legion posts conduct Disposal of Unserviceable Flag ceremonies on June 14, Flag Day, each year. The Boy and Girl Scouts of America also are able to conduct these ceremonies. When you are ready to dispose of yours, contact the local Boy or Girl Scout Council, or wait until the Girl Scout cookie sales start locally and offer the flag to the troop during a sale at a small business.

DEAR ABBY: I'm a 50ish, never-married bachelor with a question about engagement rings. Do you recommend that the man go out and purchase an engagement ring and then present your report. Questions regarding the work will be cheerfully answered.

VOLNEY POWERS,
Sec'y of Williams County.

Now is the time for you to rack your brains about the Christmas presents you must make shortly. When you enter your home and see your wife hurrying something out of sight and looking up innocently, it is the proper thing to look the other way, and in no case concern yourself about anything mysterious that may occur.

Williams County Pomona Grange will hold a special meeting in the hall of Springfield Grange, Friday evening, Nov. 28th, 1890, for the purpose of instructing a class in the fifth degree. After the degree work the evening will be devoted to music and entertainment. A day meeting will also be held on Saturday following, commencing at 10 o'clock a. m. The time will be occupied in discussing farm topics and questions relative to the farmer's interest.

S. J. KISSINGER, Sec'y.

Rinaldo Kimmel, an old soldier of the 21st O. V. V. I., living in Farmer township, was in Andersonville prison 17 months, and was on the ill-fated Sultana when she was blown up. He is one of the greatest sufferers from pain we have ever met. These pains have been coming on him gradually for many years, until at the present time it seems almost impossible for him to get his breath when he is thus attacked. Oh! that the men who are responsible for the treatment these men received while in prison, could be made to share this comrade's suffering. It is true, he gets a pension of $24 a month, but this is not enough to even pay his doctor bill, and we understand that a special effort will be made at the next term of congress, by the G. A. R. boys, through Hon. M. M. Boothman to have his pension increased to $72 dollars a month.

call leaving their girls both of good wishes and the substantial of life. In the evening a party came and placed in my hand a purse containing $19.20. To say that I am grateful but faintly expresses my feeling. I can only say from the fullness of my heart, God bless you Christian ladies and gentlemen. My sincere prayer is that your generous offerings may be as bread cast upon the waters returning after many days. Again I say, God bless you all.

HIBBARD-STONER.—On Nov. 12, by J. M. Calkins, J. P., Elmer G. Hibbard and Mary E. Stoner.

CROUSE-WOOD.—At the residence of the bride's parents, two miles north of Columbia, on Thursday evening, Nov. 13th, 1890, by Rev. F. M. Money, Jr. S. Crouse, of Butler, Ind., and Minnie M. Wood, of Williams county.

A few intimate friends were present to witness the ceremony who presented the happy couple with some mementoes of friendship. A bountiful supper added to the enjoyment of the occasion.

DIED.

LOVEJOY.—On November 12th, at her home near Williams Center, of internal cancer, Temperance W., wife of A. J. Lovejoy, at the age of 47 years, 5 months and 20 days.

Funeral services were held on November 14th, conducted by Rev. Hemphill, pastor of the M. E. church, at Williams Center. Mrs. Lovejoy was a Christian woman, having been a consistent member of the Methodist church for thirty-two years. She leaves a family of six children and a kind husband to mourn her loss.

Fickle

Feb. 15 1978

Dear Roena:

It was such a pleasure to receive your letter and the chart of the Fickle family. I've read them over and over. There are so many interesting things to discover and think about. I never did so much reminiscing about things I heard and names people talked about when I was a small boy in my life before. I got out the old atlas and found where Richland, Coshocton and Muskingum counties are in Ohio and where Frederick county is located in Maryland. I was unable to find St. Wendel or Green⁴⁴bach in any of the maps of Germany.

Your grandmother, Marianna Wasnich, the wife of George S. Fickle, had three brothers who served in the Civil War. Joseph, born August 10, 1840 enlisted in the 8th. Ohio Regiment Co. A. O. V. on April 26, 1861 and was killed in the battle of Petersburg, Virginia June 17, 1864. Henry served in the Civil War and drowned in the Catawba river in South Carolina. The Catawba river runs west and south of Charlotte a few miles. Wendel enlisted in the Army Sept. 10, 1861 Co. H. 38 Reg. of the Ohio infantry. He was wounded in the battle of Jonesboro, Ga. He was honorably discharged at Camp Dennison, June 15, 1865. Could two of these men be the ones in the picture you have? I copied this information from the two histories Aunt Minnie Kimmell Collected.

My mother's father James Bayes, born Feb. 14, 1845, served in the Civil War, and told me many times about being discharged and shaking hands with the President Abe Lincoln at that time. Grandfather died when I was ten years old. I would appreciate having a copy of his service record. We know very little about the Bayes side of our family.

In 1949 I was doing some Graduate work at the University of Michigan and discovered the name Blanch Fickle in a book. Checking I found she was taking courses in Library Science so called her up and made an appointment to see her. She was from what she called "A wide spot in the road called Fickle, Clinton County, Indiana." She told me her grandfather or great grandfather had moved from Northern Ohio^{to} Indiana and settled where later was named Fickle after him when it became a village. I hope to stop by there this summer and ^{see} what can be found to verify what Blanch told me.

My dad, William Wendel, told me he had two things that were very important to him. One was a Cameo his grandmother had brought over from Germany and was the only thing of his mothers that he had, and the other was a sword that Captain Benjamin Fickle had carried in the Revolutionary war. His Dad had given it to him as he was the only boy in the family. He said it was left with Aunt Minnie when he moved to Michigan in 1903 and we would get it sometime when we went down to Brian to visit but we never did. He gave me the Cameo before he died.

In the early fifties my Dad and I went to Niagara Falls and on the way home stopped at Westfield, N. Y. to visit his cousin George Fickle. They sat up all night and talked. The next morning after we left George's I ask Dad what they had found to talk about all night and he answered " We could have kept it up for days as we grew up together. Could that have been your Uncle George who married Laura Bucaw? George told me he worked for twenty-three years at the Welch Grapejuice Co.

There were a few discrepancies in Aunt Minnie's record of the Rev. Wendell Wasnich's family. Among them were the Birth and Death dates of my grandmother, Eliza L. Wasnich who married Isaac Elias Fickle? She was your grandmother's sister. Do you have any record of those events?

A note of interest is that Wendel Wasnich died in Six Lakes, Michigan. I worked in Six Lakes one-half day a week for eight years during the Sixties.

Our grandson, Dale Allen, has been nominated for the Navel Academy at Annapolis by U. S. Senator Alfred Cederburg, of Michigan. Dale's parents both teach in Gladwin, Michigan. Pat, our daughter, has Kindergarten and Ray teaches History and Phys. Ed.

Burniece and I taught school in Michigan all our working lives. She taught Early Elementary and Kindergarten for thirty-two years and I taught Math. and Science for two years, was High School Principal for three years, and Superintendent of Schools for twenty-nine years. The last eight years of my work in Education I was a school Social Worker helping emotional disturbed children to adjust and improve their attitudes and actions. This totals up to forty-two years. We both retired in 1968 and spend our winters in Houston where our son and his family live. This is the first time in nine years we have been unable to go.

Middleton is located thirty-two miles north of Lansing and eight miles west. It's about one hundred thirty miles from Detroit.

We have four Granddaughters and five Grandsons. How would a girl in a small town in Michigan proceed in applying for a membership in the D. A. R.? You may notice that this typewriter doesn't always type correctly. I don't know why as my adding machine always adds correctly.

I have to tell you again how much we enjoyed your letter and the Fickle Family tree. It was so enjoyable.

Sincerely,

Hollis

Dear Roena:

My sister, Marie Fickle Willis, of Detroit, wrote me that she had been talking to our cousin, Elsa Burns Donovan and during the conversation Elsa told her that she had been talking with you at a reunion last summer. Elsa also told her that you might have some information regarding Benjamin Fickle.

My mother was Nora Bayes Fickle and her mother was Catherine Lehman. Her father was James Bayes, Her grandfather was Thomas Bayes. My father was William Wendel Fickle the son of Eliza L. Wasnich Fickle and Isaac Elias Fickle. Isaac Elias was the son of Isaac ^{Hedge} ~~Henry~~ Fickle whose father was Benjamin Fickle. The above is a brief summary of information my Aunt Minnie Kimmell of Brian, Ohio sent me. In it she also said that Benjamin's wife was named Phebe and they had eight children one being Isaac ^{Hedge} ~~Henry~~.

I will be very grateful for any information you can send me regarding Benjamin, the names of his children, his birth date, his war record, his wife's maiden name and any other information regarding the Fickle family.

Any expense incurred in getting this information to me please let me know and I'll reimburse you.

Thanks so much.

Sincerely yours,

Hollis

Dear Burnice & Hollis,

You must be feeling very confined with all this snow & sub zero weather. I know I do. Three weeks and hardly out of the house except to push around a little snow.

Monday was cold but sunny so I went down to the Archives and pulled several Civil War Pension files and here are the ones I duplicated for you. It was difficult to know which ones to choose. Did you know that Isaac C. was married three times? I knew about the first two but not the third. You will notice that one affidavit was signed by my grandfather George S. Fille, another by James Beyer, Moris' father and my great uncle, a Tedrow who is a Beyer relative and others I thought would add to our knowledge of our ancestral heritage. The more I search, the more impressed I am with what fine people we had for ancestors. I hope you will be available so we can get together again when I come home in June. Another of Aunt Florence (Beyer) Budas' grandchildren will be getting married on the 19th of June so I will be in Ohio around that time.

I have much information on our Wasnick ancestry. Cousin Winnie Wasnick has done a fine job of acquiring information on Eliza's

Father Rev. Wendel Wasnick who was educated at the Seminary in Heidelberg came with his wife Philippina Marie Bauer and her parents John Abraham Bauer & Philippina Maria (Pauker) Bauer in 1834 from St. Wendel & Grumbach, Germany. Minnie has a sermon preached by J. grandfather Rev. Wendel. Alma has the bed they brought over with them & I have a sewing spoon.

Right now I am down to my Silver Spring house. Came down to see Jan. Legion meeting & as my furnace has stopped working so I have had to have a new furnace installed. Guess it was a good time to have it done as I wouldn't want to rent the house before having the old one replaced. Now that I've been here three weeks I may as well stay for the Feb. meeting.

I hope you had a fine vacation in Texas and it will soon be spring so stay well and I hope to see you again when I'm in Ohio.

With love,

Rena

Dear Roena:

I've started half a dozen letters to you since receiving your Christmas communication but each time something happened to interrupt and by the time I got back to it I'd say to myself, "Guess I better start a new one" and then the same thing would happen over again. It was a very hectic and unsettled winter and spring. Also we had hoped to go to Fickle, Indiana and do some research so as to be able to tell you about that branch of the family.

Thanks so very much for the school picture of my mother and some of her family members. The people here are amazed at the materials you have collected and the information you have brought to light about the families.

My cousin Mildred said you were coming to Ohio this fall and if it is possible we would like to meet with you during your stay.

When are you moving to the Quaker state?

We are sending the enclosed pendant in appreciation of the many things you have sent us. We picked it up in Abuquerque a few years ago while visiting there. The salesperson said it was made by the Hopi Indians. The Indians make many things of turquoise and silver.

Did I send you one of the charts of the William Wendell Family? If Dickle

I did here's another one. I'm running out of steam and should put this aside and finish it later but I know what will happen if I do so am going to sign it and seal it up right now.

I just have to tell you again how great it is to have the picture of my mother and Dad's sister.

As ever,

Dear Barbara & Walter

What a beautiful surprise! The silver Hops
are so just beautiful and I'm enjoying them
it is impossible to know to find words for the larger than ordinary "thank you" that I send
to you.

I am coming to Ohio the end of Sept. for a couple weeks. Cousin Ron Budas will be getting married on Sept 26th. I would be blight-
ed to want very much to meet you any time
the week before or the week after. I would just make it any time.

This past week I read a letter written by a
Mrs. Claude F. Le Hand, age 80, 1541 E. Cedar Springs
St., Whittier, Calif. She claims Ron Fickle as her great ancestor. It's really a funny letter. It says that Eleanor Marcum (who has Fickle
ancestors and Emma says, "I question Rona Bayer's chart. For instance, she was born Aug.
27 1918 + her mother Sarah Fickle was born Aug.
14 1873 + married to R. Bayer July 4 1901. That means her mother was 28 yrs. old when she got married + when Rona was born in 1918
her mother had to be 45 yrs old. Most women have change of life by age 45 + is very risky to have a baby at age 45. Also close to impossible.
Well I laughed so hard when I read that.
I guess I'll write + tell her what a wonderful mother I had that she was able to do the close to impossible. Well she truly was a wonderful mother.

It will be difficult to write to Mrs. Le Grand without making silly remarks but I'll try to behave my self & be very serious.

Her chart goes like this:

g. g. g. grandfather - Lt. Benj. Fickle

8th. as stated in military pension records.

Our g. grandfather Isaac H. & Rachel, Catherine & Patrick listed as the 4 youngest.

Mrs. Le Grand says another son was Benj. & Rebecca - they had a son ^{Benj.} Light, Our But goon, they had a son Benj. who ~~was~~ Amelia Catherine Rooney, they had 2 sons Charley & James. James & Grace Mears & they had a daughter Eunice.

I want doubt her so will say there are now only 3 more siblings of g. grandfather Isaac H. to locate. This is a real challenge but lots of fun.

In trying to locate Isaac H. & Nancy Youngs marriage records - wrote to Crawford Co. and reply that 1825 was too young for their records so - wrote to Marion Co. because Crawford Co. was made from Delaware & Delaware from Marion & they were created from Franklin & so I rec'd the following.

1. Isaac H. & Nancy Young Dec. 25. 1825 (family rec. shows Dec. 1)
2. Isaac Fickle & Eliz. Lipton Mar. 25 1825
3. Eliz. Fickle & Phineas Packard May 1, 1825
4. Nancy Fickle & Absalom Packard July 13, 1824

none of these records have any further information on them.

I went to Wauseon, Ohio when I was home in June & they have a Bay's cemetery. a Bayes St. & we were told that the Bayes families, of which there were many, owned much land & sold some for the City of Waukegan. Aunt Florence (Bayes) Buda always said that Thomas' wife was buried in the Waukegan^{city} Cemetery, but just at the edge of town is this Bayes Cemetery. There are two Catherine Bayes & another Thomas Bayes — Well, I could go on & on about the interesting day cousin Anna Buda & I spent in Waukegan & didn't even begin to search the info available.

I enjoyed talking with Irene when she was in Va. a few weeks ago.

This is the first cool day we have had for so long. Thanks for sending it our way. I could see by the weather map you were enjoying it a day or two before it arrived in Paul area. There is much work to be done on the outside so perhaps I'd better begin a little bending exercise & see if I can improve the looks of this place.

Thanks again for the lovely cross. We'll look forward in hopeful anticipation of seeing you in Sept.

Always your cousin
Renee

Dear Bernice & Hollis,

I hope you have both been well this winter. Also have been wondering if you are spending some time in Texas.

The days & weeks go so quickly since I retired. I think it's because I'm trying to catch up on all the things I kept wanting to do but had to put off either because there was no time or I didn't have the energy to do it.

11 May 1981

Well I'll try again! I've had these pictures ready to send to you for a long time but couldn't locate the names that Aunt Florence (Bayes) Buda wrote out for us one time when I was home. Today I located them. I'm still working on picture identifications. This week I sent a wedding picture to Ruth Henry Wood in Houston, Texas. I'm sure it's Doris + Elsworth but want to make sure. (Ruth, daughter of Fay; Fay son of Doris + Elsworth) I have also made a copy of I think your grandfathers sister our Great Aunt Becky + her nine children, the Listers. The reason I think this is - I find pictures of three of the children and fortunately the names had been written on the back. I wonder if there are any Listers in ^{your} phone directory. They were living in the Hillsdale, Mich. area according to my records.

I plan to be in Ohio the second and third week in June and again in Sept. from around the 24th thru the first part of Oct. Perhaps one of these times we can meet.

We're having the second rainy dreary day in a row but would hate to have my front yard dropping into a hole like in Winter Park, Fla. so - rain on!

Think I'll be off to the Post Office.

Hope you enjoy the pictures -

Rena

I've been waiting to write until I had some information but so many things got in the road this summer we've been unable to carry out any of our plans. I had hoped to meet with you and spend some time together if you came to Ohio or Michigan this summer but we have been unable to get away. We have a two story house with a full basement which involves the almost constant use of the stairs.

Last spring the Doctor prescribed
Two hours rest each afternoon,
^{for Buxpiece,} and no walking up stairs so we spent the summer getting
our home ready to sell and
getting another place ready to move in. This house
is much too big for two
people anyway.

We leave for Houston
about the first of November
to spend the winter. Our son, Bill, lives there. We'll return to Michigan about April 1st.

Mildred (Bayes) Alsbaugh
writes me that your Great Grandfather was William
Bayes a brother of Thomas.
Thomas is Mildred's and
my Great Grandfather.

As I wrote you we planned to go to Pickle's Indiana and so far haven't done so. Also I want to visit the Haxmer Cemetery a short distance from Bryan, Ohio. My Dad took me there when I was in my teens and I believe my Grandfather and Grandmother are buried there but it was so long ago I'm not sure.

I thought you might like to know what we looked like so am inclosing a picture.

I'll write again when things are less involved.

Sincerely,
Hollis

Hicksville - Fri April 11,

Hi Roena -

I don't remember if I answered your letter or not - I certainly intended to for I was so very pleased to get the picture of mother and dad at the organ. I don't think I had ever seen that picture before. The first thing each of the girls said was "Did G-Grandma play the organ?" I don't remember that she played the organ. Irene Allen said her mother had an organ but she never played on it and none of the girls did. I think many people had organs - it was always there if company came someone could play the organ and everybody sang. I do remember both dad and Wilbur playing the violin some. Thanks so much for the picture. What a nice hobby you have.!

My sister ^{Lora} passed away last week - the funeral was week ago today. Leighton, who was some confused before in his thinking, is very confused now and not at all well. Victor, his daughter and husband came from S. Carolina and one of Fern's daughter, Audrey, her husband and 2 children came from Springfield, O. Not many left in Farmer who remember either Lora or Leighton Norway.

We are having wonderful weather - lots of field work being done - Eva Gage and George were here yesterday; they plowed the field here north of the house.

How is Albert? Victor still says he wants to live to be 100 so he can say he lived in three centuries - he was born Dec. 1899. -

He lives by himself since Mildred is gone - about 7 mi. from where Marcell's - his daughter, lives.

I think I heard a car door slam - we may be going to wash sap pails today - that one thing where I can still help. They made 60 some gal. of nice syrup this year.

Thanks again

Love

Dear Roena:

Received your letter and enjoyed it so very much. I only wish I were as fluent with a pen as you.

We were glad to learn when you were coming to Ohio and also that young people are still getting married in this day of "social change."

We have made a commitment for Sept. 22nd, 23rd and 24th, so could meet you more conveniently sometime after the wedding, between 9-27-81 and 10-3-81 inclusive any day ~~you~~ you select.

If you could choose a day and a meeting place in some town close to where you'll be staying we could meet you and go to a restaurant for lunch and conversation. I'm sure we could be there by 12:00 o'clock.

I received a letter from Mildred Alsbaugh and she thought her brother, Harlan, and his wife Eva would like to bring her down to meet you at the time Duane and I came. Also Irma and Charles Christian of Muskegon, Michigan, Irma is a first cousin of Mildred and me, would like to come too.

When your itinerary is settled I would appreciate having telephone numbers where I could reach you if necessary, or the number of some person who could get a message to you. At our age we're never sure what tomorrow may bring. As you know "The best laid plans of mice and men"

We are eagerly awaiting for the end of September as we have wanted to see you for so long.

It's after ten o'clock and have two more letters to write to-night so will close and get to them.

We're leaving for the Cabin early in the morning for over Labor-day. While there we're giving a going-away party for our grand son, Dale, who is going to Oak Ridge, Tenn. to work for Goodyear.

Gently pressing your hand I remain,

as ever,
Hallie
and Bessie

Dear Paena:-

We have a new great grand daughter, Bethany Jo Lynn Brown, born to Myla Rae Fickle Brown and Tony Eugene Brown on June 9th. She's cute as a bug.

We put our cabin up for sale and have been busy getting the things we want to keep, and cleaning up so it is presentable to show.

Wishing you the best birthday yet,

Bernice and Hollis

Merry Christmas,
Raeva!

I've enclosed our Christmas letter. I thought you might
enjoy reading it.

Eva Hays found a
news article from the Defiance Crescent. A
reporter interviewed Grandma Kimmell. There are things
in this article which I never knew. I'm going to be making copies,
and I'll make one for
you.

Our tree is up. I've frozen
lasagna for one meal
when the girls & their
families will be here —
Dec. 23, 24, 25. It will be a good time. Ward and enough beds. I don't go to the motel. That works so well for us.

Then on Jan. 11 Ward &
I will head south for our
trailer near La Belle, Florida.
I hope it warms up
down there. Friends called
and said it was so cold
down there.

Best wishes for a good
New Year. Shirley Fritz

HAPPY HOLIDAYS

December, 2010

Dear family and friends,

Here it is, December again, and time for the Fritz yearly update.

Our years are beginning to look pretty much alike: January through April at our trailer in Grandma's Shore RV Park near La Belle, Florida; May and part of June home in Bryan; mid-June to most of August west in Wyoming and Colorado; September to mid-October home in Bryan; mid-October to mid-November at our trailer in Florida; mid-November through December home in Bryan for the holidays. Sometimes I wake up and have to think a second to realize just where I am.

This past Florida winter was colder and rainier than usual. We had to keep the doors closed on the trailer much more than I like. Daughter Loreli came down to spend most of a week with us, which is always fun. As usual, we did more eating out with friends than we should. We discovered Hungry Howies, a great pizza buffet in La Belle.

In May we took our usual 3-day trip to Niagara Falls with friends Doyle and Ellie Mc Bride and Dyle and Eleanor Roth. The Falls are always impressive and the gardens by the falls so pretty with tulips and other spring flowers. We do enjoy our dinners up in the revolving tower restaurant. Then we must make our little jaunt to Niagara-on-the-lake so that Ward can get his yearly supply of Treasures jelly.

My sister had surgery in mid-June. We waited to leave for the West until we knew she would be okay.

Heading to Wyoming and the Grand Tetons, Ward drove the truck with camper, and I followed with our car. Everything went well until one of the dual tires on the truck went flat, about 2/3 of the way across Wyoming. Ward nursed the truck 12 miles along the edge of I-80 until we came to a rest area. A local lady there was a great help, as she knew just the right garage to call.

The Tetons were magnificent, especially since the yellow arrowleaf balsam flowers were blooming everywhere, great for pictures.

After several weeks there, we came back into Colorado. Our week in Rocky Mountain National Park was great. The three-mile hike I took up to the Loch, a high lake, almost did me in. I was so slow that some college students passed me, and then cheered and clapped when they saw me finally arrive at the lake. Then I had to hike those long three miles back down.

We had more camping time up along the Cache la Poudre River. Ken and Gina Woodring and Linda Langston met us there. Later we moved south and west to the area around Fairplay and then the area south of Leadville. Having a bad cold slowed my hiking down quite a bit, but there were interesting drives. Friends Yoram and Cathy Leitner joined us for a fun three days.

Then it was home to Bryan to be here for the Fritz reunion the day before Labor Day. Our three girls and families came home for that.

We spent Thanksgiving at Loris, north of Chicago. While there, I was visiting Julia's school for Grandparents' Day. I missed a step and took a bad fall, hitting my head hard on the hall floor. One of the students called the EMS, and the next thing I knew I was in the hospital. I never passed out, but the CT scan of my head and an X-Ray of my tailbone area were a good thing. Result - no bones broken, just some sore bruises to heal. While at Loris we attended a great musical, Million Dollar Quartet, at the Apollo Theater in downtown Chicago.

Now for the grandchildren: Ben is in his last year of law school at San Diego and will graduate in May. We are going out on the train.

Julia will be graduating from high school in late May.

Joe is in his second year at the University of Cincinnati, majoring in mechanical engineering.

Nathan is a junior at Sakarna High School, near Columbus.

Hilary has completed her 2-year nursing degree and is working at a pediatric clinic in Columbus.

Elaine has just completed her 2-year nursing degree. She has begun a job at the Ohio State University hospital.

As you can see, we can be thankful for another good year.

In closing, we wish you Love, Peace, and Happiness that the true meaning of Christmas brings.

HISTORY OF BENJAMIN FICKLE, FATHER OF ISAAC HENRY

Benjamin Fickle was a Marylander. His home was in Frederick County, the home also of Barbara Frietchie and Chief Justice Roger Brooke Taney. He enlisted April 6, 1778 for the duration of the war in the company of Capt. Jonathan Morris. On May 10, 1778, Sgt. Benjamin Fickle took up Thomas Bowl as a vagrant and delivered him to Capt. Morris. On Feb. 19, 1780, he was in the Fifth Continental Line and was commissioned Captain on Feb. 19, 1781. As Lieutenant he was in service on Dec. 15, 1783. For his service he received a Federal Bounty Warrent for 200 acres of land, and the state of Maryland gave him a pension of half pay of a Lieutenant for life. At this time he was a resident of Muskingum County, Ohio.

On Dec. 27, 1833, he asked for an increase of pension, certifying his service in Coshocton County, Pike Township. This led to a surmise that he had been buried in Coshocton but this error is corrected by Charles A. Bowersox on page 342 in his History of Williams County. He says "An old account says Benjamin Fickle died October 1839 in Jefferson Township, and that he was buried on the Isaac Fickle farm, and that in 1888 the body was exhumed and reinterred in April in Fountain Grove Cemetery, but the metal marker at his grave has the name D. Fickle on it with seven stars, indicating the Revolutionary War of 1776." This error should be rectified.

Another source gives May 20, 1839 as the date of his death. His pension was last paid to Sept. 4, 1838. His wife's name was Phebe. They had ~~eight~~ children.

(My Son-in-law, the Historian, tells me it was a common practice at the close of a war to reduce the rank of many of the officers. This might account for the inconsistencies in the writings about Benjamin Fickle).

UNDERTAKER A. C. Dillman ADDRESS Bryan

A Williams County Revolutionary War Hero

by Richard L. Cooley

Author's Note: Thanks to Roena Bayes of Fairfield, Pa., for sharing with us family data concerning Revolutionary War hero Benjamin Fickle. Up to now little has been known about the life of this man who is buried in the Fountain Grove Cemetery at Bryan. The following was condensed from Ms. Bayes' notes.

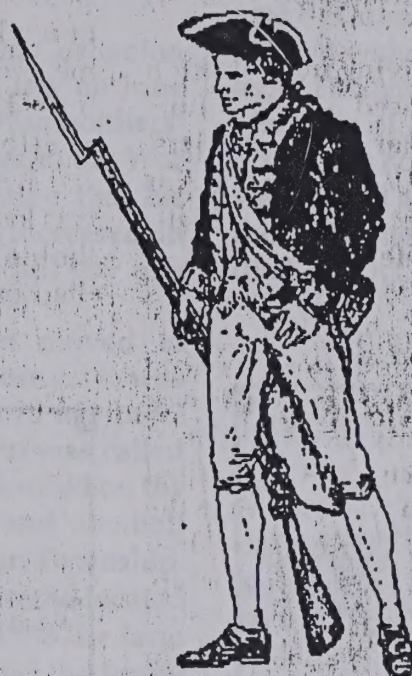

Benjamin Fickle was born Sept. 11, 1746 to Michael and Margaret (Slaymaker) Fickle, probably in Lancaster County, Pa.

About 1762, Benjamin's father, having purchased land known as Brooks' Discovery on Piney Creek in Maryland, relocated there.

On June 21, 1775, at a meeting held at the courthouse by the Committee of Observation of Frederick, Maryland, which requested two companies of expert riflemen join the army at Boston, Benjamin enlisted. He joined the first company of light infantry under the command of Capt. Michael Cresap. The company later fell under the command of Capt. Thomas Price.

This unit became noted for their dress consisting of white frocks or rifle shirts, breeches and round hats. The expert riflemen were even more famous for their accuracy of aim at 200 yards.

When Colonial troops were forced to evacuate Boston, the 1st Battalion, 6th Company, Flying Camp from Frederick County, Maryland, engaged in the Battle of Long Island on Aug. 27, 1776, and Sgt. or 3rd Lieut. Benjamin Fickle was wounded and later discharged.

By Sept. 9, 1778, Benjamin Fickle had joined the Maryland Line, 7th Regiment, and became an ensign on Jan. 26, 1780. On Feb. 19, 1780 Fickle was appointed second lieutenant. The 7th Regiment saw action in the Southern campaign and again Benjamin was wounded, this time at the Battle of Camden which was fought Aug. 16, 1780.

From January 1781 to April 12, 1783, Benjamin served with Gunby's Battalion. Lieutenant Fickle was released from active service on Nov. 15, 1783.

It is also believed that Benjamin was one of the famous "Maryland 400." These volunteers became famous when 256 of the 400 men sacrificed their lives at the Battle of Long Island, N.Y., on Aug. 27, 1776, while covering Washington's retreat. Of their bravery, Gen. George Washington was quoted as saying, "Good God! What brave fellows I must this day lose." Their heroic stand was a precious hour in American history. Benjamin was wounded that day.

On May 13, 1783, the Convention of Continental Officers organized themselves into the "Society of Cincinnati." The convention was held at Major General Baron von Steuben's headquarters—Newburg on the Hudson. The name for the organization was taken from the illustrious Roman, Lucius Quintus Cincinnatus.

On Nov. 21, 1783 a meeting was called by General Smallwood and held at the Mann House in Annapolis, Maryland. Many of the officers who had been at the national meeting attended the Annapolis meeting as well. Lieutenant Fickle was at the meeting to help elect the first officers and thus became a founding member of that society.

Some details of Fickle's life after the war are vague, but he was living in Kentucky, for his son Isaac H. was born there in 1796. On Aug. 25, 1800, Benjamin is found paying taxes in Mason County, Kentucky.

Benjamin was awarded four 50-acre tracts of land west of Fort Cumberland, Allegheny County, Maryland, which he sold in 1805. At this time he was living in Muskingum County, Ohio.

On July 7, 1808 a deed was recorded at the Delaware County, Ohio, courthouse granting Benjamin a tract of land appropriated for satisfying warrants of military service. In 1811 and 1812 Benjamin also purchased land at Zanesville, Ohio.

Of Benjamin's first wife, information is not available, but he did marry a second time on April 7, 1825 to Phebe Harris at Coshocton County, Ohio.

While Benjamin was still living in Coshocton County, the U.S. Congress passed a law on June 7, 1833 increasing Revolutionary War soldiers' pensions. Benjamin submitted a letter to the War Department on Dec. 2, 1833 requesting that his half pay of a lieutenant for life be increased in accordance with the new law to the full pay of a lieutenant.

Sometime after 1833 Benjamin moved to Jefferson Township in Williams County. It was here on May 20, 1839, at the advanced age of 92 years, 8 months and 9 days, Benjamin was called to his higher reward. Benjamin was buried on the banks of Leatherwood Creek, two and one-half miles northeast of Pulaski in Jefferson Township. The burial site was a private burial ground located on the farm of his son Isaac H. By 1888 the farm had been sold to George Altaffer, and the burial plot had not been reserved.

Benjamin had eight children, three of whom were still living as of Aug. 15, 1857. They were Isaac H.; Rachel, who married Thomas Vansky in Muskingum County, Ohio; and Catherine, who married a Killpatrick.

The saga of Benjamin Fickle did not stop at his death. It had been known for some years among the "old-timers" that a Revolutionary War soldier was buried on the Altaffer farm. For two or three years W.E. Stough had been urging someone to remove Fickle's remains to a proper cemetery. Finally, and under the auspices of the Bryan Evans Post G.A.R., Benjamin's remains were moved to the Bryan Fountain Grove Cemetery (then known as Fountain Lawn).

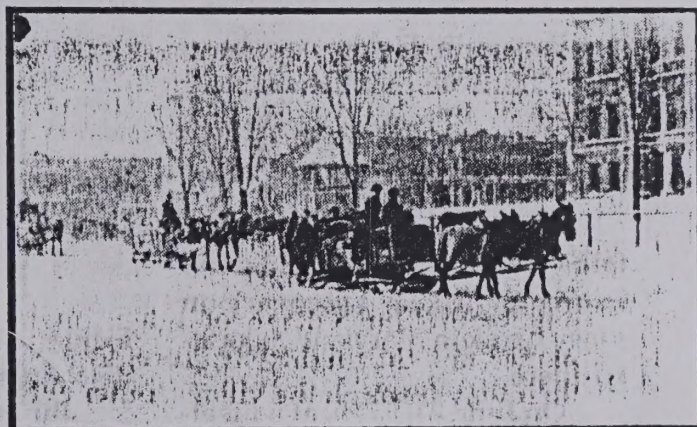

Of the removal of Benjamin's remains, the April 26, 1888 Bryan Press stated, "the bones were found in a good state of preservation though the coffin, which was made of walnut lumber, had almost entirely disappeared."

At the time Benjamin's remains were removed to Bryan, the only remaining relatives in the area were the widow of Isaac Fickle and her children, who were then residing at Farmer in Defiance County. WCHS member Roena Bayes of Pennsylvania is a descendant of Isaac, Benjamin's son.

A tombstone to mark Benjamin's resting spot was not provided, although the location of his grave at the Bryan cemetery seemed to be well known. In 1905 the editor of the Bryan Press stated, "the grave is unmarked, but it should be located and marked without delay. These facts were discovered by W.H. Shinn in the work he is doing in preparing a history of the county."

It was not until July 1947 that Benjamin's grave was located and a stone made to permanently mark the burial site. The stone incorrectly states Benjamin died on Oct. 10, 1838.

I Remember When...

This photograph shows several boys "hopping a bobsled" on the east side of the courthouse square in Bryan in 1909. (Bryan Public Library's Photographic Archives)

by Grant Brown

I remember when on Saturday mornings in the winter the big winter sport was hopping bobsleds. That seemed to be the day that farmers would bring their corn, oats, wheat, etc., to the gristmill or elevator to have it ground up for cattle feed, etc. There were no soybeans back then; Henry Ford was responsible for that crop in this area.

They would bring it in on their bobsleds which were pulled by a team of horses. A lot of kids would be out on the street jumping on the side of the sled and riding up and down Main and High streets. We would ride one out to the edge of town, then hop another to come back to the gristmill. You see, in those days they did not plow the snow so the streets always had plenty of snow on them. Once in a while you would have a farmer that would ask you not to ride, but most of them did not seem to care, and were very nice about it.

Police identify deceased couple

Gerald and Carolynne Foust were found deceased Monday in their duplex at 1106A Cardinal Drive in Bryan. The cause of death, the time and manner have not been publicly released.

By LYNN THOMPSON

lthompson@bryantimes.com

Bryan police identified the deceased persons found Monday afternoon in their home on Cardinal Drive as Gerald Foust, 70, and his wife, Carolynne K. Foust, 78.

"Preliminary autopsy results indicate this is a homicide/suicide," Bryan Police Chief Chris Chapa said in a press release Wednesday morning.

Police responded to the residence, 1106A Cardinal Drive, at 12:48 p.m. Monday after a 911 call indicated there had been a death in the home.

The incident remains under investigation through the state's Bureau of Criminal Investigation in conjunction with the Bryan Police Department.

The cause of death and time of death have not been released.

Williams County Coroner Dr. Kevin Park could not be reached for comment Wednesday morning.

"They were wonderful people. This is so awful," a neighbor told The Bryan Times at the scene Monday afternoon. "He was always outside watering his plants. He took a lot of pride in his flowers."

HOUSTON — Hospital administrators and health care experts warned desperately Wednesday that parts of the U.S. are on the verge of becoming overwhelmed by a resurgence of the coronavirus, lamenting that politicians and a tired-of-being-cooped-up public are letting a disaster unfold.

The U.S. recorded a one-day total of 34,700 new COVID-19 cases, just short of the nation's late-April peak of 36,400, according to the count kept by Johns Hopkins University.

While new cases have been declining steadily in early U.S. hot spots such as New York and

CARES funding

Sullivan outlined the
ongoing adaptation to

protocols in light of
protests spurred by the death of George Floyd
the custody of Minneapolis police officers.

CCNO is among the first 65 criminal justice agencies in Ohio to receive funding from
the congressional Coronavirus
Aid, Relief and Economic Security (CARES) Act.

"We're pretty excited about
that," Sullivan said. "We spent
an additional $43,300 for personal protective equipment and
additional cleaning supplies
when the pandemic started and
we'll be reimbursed for all of it."

His staff has also consolida-
ed best practices from the past
four months into a single standard operating procedure.

"It's a huge living document
but necessary to have in place," Sullivan said. "Lawsuits have been filed against jails nationwide for not doing the right things."
